GAME NOTES

AROUND THE WAC

Last weekend Sacramento State went 1-3 vs. No. 12 ranked Fresno State and defeated Saint Mary's. San Jose State took 3-of-4 at home against Louisiana Tech and blasted UC Davis 13-1 while the shocker of the weekend was Nevada's four-game sweep of New Mexico State. The Wolf Pack outscored the big-hitting Aggies 31-6, including two shutouts. Nevada's Brock Stassi and Fresno State's Greg Gonzalez earned WAC player of the week honors. Stassi went 9-for-16 with four runs, four RBIs and two doubles in Nevada's sweep of New Mexico State.

HORNETS TAKE ONE FROM #12 FRESNO ST.

Sacramento State took a game from No. 12 ranked Fresno State last weekend. The Hornets won 2-1 in the first game of Saturday's doubleheader. In the seventh and final inning, Derrick Chung singled with the bases loaded to tie up the game 1-1 and then Kirby Young slapped a single up the middle to score the game-winning run. It was the Hornets' third walk-off win of the season and Young's second walk-off hit. Young also hit a walk-off single in the 10th inning to beat UC Davis, 3-2, on Feb. 21.

DEL GRANDE, YOUNG IN WAC GAMES

In Sacramento State's eight conference games this season, David Del Grande leads the team with a .344 batting average while Kirby Young is just behind him with a .313 BA. Young leads the team with four RBIs while Blake Miller is a perfect 3-for-3 on stolen base attempts.

SUCCESS IN DOUBLEHEADERS

Sacramento State has posted a 6-3 record in the opening games. The Hornets are 1-1 in the openers of WAC doubleheaders, but won their most recent, 2-1, over No. 12 ranked Fresno State.

SANDOVAL'S TRANSITION TO STARTER

In 25 innings pitched over four starts since switching from the bullpen, Brandon Sandoval has allowed just seven earned runs - a 2.52 ERA.

HORNETS AGAINST SJSU STARTERS

The Hornets faced Blake McFarland (the 2011 preseason pitcher of the year), Andy Hennessey and Esteban Guzman last season. Kirby Young went 2-for-2 with an RBI and a double against McFarland while he launched a three-run home run in his only at-bat against Hennessey. In 12 at-bats, the Hornets posted six hits and drew two walks vs. McFarland and went 2-for-4 with a triple and a home run against Hennessey. In four-at bats last season, the Hornets did not get a hit against Guzman.

POSITION STARTERS, LINEUP IN FLUX

First-year head coach has been searching for his best group of position starters all season. Because of that, each position has been manned by many different players this season. The Hornets have used four players at catcher, four at first base, four at second, four at third, two at short stop, 11 in the outfield and 10 at designated hitter. The lineup has been equally jumbled. A total of 10 different players have hit leadoff this season, with Derrick Chung's 17 games the most. However, Jake Chilton has had the most success there, hitting .412 in 17 at-bats in the leadoff spot. The second position in the line up has had 12 different players take swings, while the clean-up spot has seen seven different players, the most (17 games) coming from Andrew Ayers. Kirby Young has done a solid job in the No. 2 hole, hitting .315 over 54 at-bats in 14 games, while Chung has been the most successful in the No. 4 spot, hitting .364 over 11 at-bats in three games. Ayers has been better off in the No. 5 spot, hitting .444 over 27 at-bats in eight games.

JOHN SMITH FIELD

Sacramento State's Hornet Field was renamed John Smith Field, in honor of long-time coach John Smith, who retired in 2010 after 32 seasons at the helm. Smith still works in the athletics department, assisting with fundraising. John Smith Field still sports the same dimensions - 333 in left, 400 in center and 333 in right.

HEAD COACH REGGIE CHRISTIANSEN

EXPERIENCE: First Season
RECORD: 14-28 (1-7 WAC)
ALMA MATER: Menlo, 1998
HOMETOWN: Ferndale, Calif.

Reggie Christiansen begins his first season as the head baseball coach, taking over the reigns of the program after spending the last two seasons as an assistant and as the associate head coach.

Before coming to Sacramento State, Christiansen spent the previous four seasons (2005-08) as the head baseball coach at South Dakota State. He serves as the team's hitting instructor, recruiting coordinator and third base coach.

Christiansen was given the task of building a Division I baseball program during his four seasons with the Jackrabbits, taking over at the beginning of their reclassification period. Christiansen posted a 96-113 record at South Dakota State, turning a 12-win team in Division II a year previous to his hire in 2004 into a team that won the Division I Independent Tournament in 2007, collecting a 34-19 record. During that season, the Jacks notched wins in 11 states, ranging from California to Kentucky and Utah to North Dakota.

The 2007 Jackrabbits team reshaped the SDSU record books under Christiansen. The squad set records for runs scored (395), hits (573), doubles (99), total bases (891), runs batted in (357), and at bats (1,824). In addition, the 2007 team fielded .962, just one percentage point off the school mark. Christiansen earned Division I Independent Coach of the Year honors following that season.

Prior to his arrival at South Dakota State, Christiansen was an assistant at the University of Kansas under Ritch Price for two seasons. During his time with the Jayhawks, he served as first base coach and worked as a hitting instructor, while also overseeing the outfielders.

Under his tutelage, Kansas broke several school records and was honored by the Big 12 Conference. In 2004, Jayhawk hitters led the Big 12 with a .316 team batting average, the fourth highest in the program's history, while setting a school record with 697 hits. Kansas also shattered the school home run record during the Christiansen era.
