17th-Annual Baseball Golf Classic 2008

Sacramento State's baseball program will be hosting the 17th-Annual Baseball Golf Classic on Friday, Oct. 10. The fundraising event will be held at Lincoln Hills Golf Club for the fifth consecutive year.

The tournament format will be a four-person shamble, with registration and check-in beginning at 9:30 a.m.

The shotgun start begins at 11 a.m., followed by a reception, awards dinner and raffle prize drawing in the patio area adjacent to the clubhouse at approximately 5:30 p.m.

The entry fee is a $195 per person, which includes golf, cart, tee prizes and dinner in the ballroom.

There are four different levels of sponsorship for the event. The Corporate level ($2,500) includes two foursomes, two hole signs, two baseball gameday recognitions and tournament program recognition. The Grand Slam ($1,250) includes one foursome, hole signage, baseball gameday recognition and tournament program recognition. The Hornet level ($750) includes two golfers, one hole sign and tournament recognition. A contribution of $250 includes one hole sign and tournament recognition.

Lincoln Hills is located in the community of Sun City Hills in Lincoln, Calif., approximately 35 minutes from Downtown Sacramento.

To register or for more information, please contact head coach John Smith at (916) 278-7225.

Directions: Take I-80 toward Reno and exit Hwy 65 North toward the town of Lincoln. Exit on Twelve Bridges and turn right. Turn left onto Lincoln Parkway. Turn right at Del Webb Blvd. and go 1.5 miles to the clubhouse, which is on the left.
