2010 Hornet Football

HEAD COACH—
MARSHALL SPERBECK
EXPERIENCE—4th YEAR
ALMA MATER—NEVADA RENO '84

Marshall Sperbeck is entering his fourth year as the Sacramento State head coach. Sperbeck was hired to lead the Hornets on Jan. 13, 2007 and became the ninth head coach in school history.

Sperbeck's transformation of the program began to show in 2008 when the team posted the second most victories in the school's Div. I-AA/FCS era. Sacramento State also set team records on both sides of the ball and had three players named first team all-Big Sky.

The 2009 Hornet football team made large strides by tying the most Big Sky Conference victories in a single season by a Sacramento State Football team with four, including a victory over #21 ranked Northern Arizona University. The 2009 Hornets also defeated UC Davis in the Causeway Classic for the second straight year.

Prior to coming to the Hornets, Sperbeck was the Head Football Coach at Foothill College in Los Altos Hills, CA. for 15 years. During that span, his teams produced a 109-53 overall record and advanced to 11 bowl games. During his final year, the Owls were 10-1 and tied for the Northern California Football Association title. The team advanced to the Silicon Valley Bowl where it downed Sierra College, 24-0.

In 2006, Foothill was one of the top offensive teams in the state with Sperbeck calling the plays. The Owls led all California Junior Colleges with 478.8 yards per game. Foothill also ranked at the top of the state list with 590.2 all-purpose yards per game, 7.2 yards per play and 9.6 yards per pass attempt.

A native of Sacramento, Sperbeck graduated from Valley High School. He later played at the University of Nevada from 1981-82 and led the team to a pair of winning seasons while throwing for 3,425 yards.

Following college, he had two stints in NFL training camps before joining the Foothill JC staff as an assistant coach in 1985. He coached the quarterbacks and receivers and was later elevated to offensive coordinator before becoming head coach in 1992.

Sperbeck earned a bachelor's of science degree in physical education from Nevada in 1984 and later added a master's of education from United States International in 1989.

Marshall and his wife, Kelle, have three children: Brooke (16), Thomas (15), and Ally (13).
