

2009 GRIZ FOOTBALL: Game #7: #2 Montana at Sac State in Big Sky Contest

THE GAME: The second-ranked (Sports Network) University of Montana Grizzlies (6-0/3-0 Big Sky Conference) continue their Big Sky slate, playing the Sacramento State Hornets (2-4/2-2) on Saturday, Oct. 24th.

KICKOFF: Kickoff is at 3:05 p.m. (Mtn.) in Hornet Stadium (21,195, natural grass).

RADIO/TV: The game can be heard on flagship stations KGVO Radio (1290-AM) and KVWE Radio (101.5 FM) of Missoula and throughout the state of Montana on Grizzly Football Network stations. Mick Holien calls the play-by-play, Scott Gurnsey provides color, and Greg Sundberg serves as the sideline announcer.

The game will be televised live by KPAX-TV of Missoula and carried by its affiliates stations in the state of Montana. KPAX-TV's sports director Phil Buck will call the action and UM's Dave Guffey provides in-booth color.

GRIZ LAST WEEK: At Montana 41, Eastern Washington 34: The third-ranked and never-say-die Grizzlies put together a crucial scoring drive in the closing minutes en route to defeating the 21st-ranked Eagles. Montana's final scoring drive was an 11-play, 55-yarder that culminated when senior halfback Chase Reynolds scored on a 4th-and-goal from the 1-yard line. Reynolds' TD gave the Grizzlies a 41-34 lead with 1:18 remaining in the game.

Reynolds led UM with 21 carries for 69 yards and two scores, while senior halfback Thomas Brooks-Fletcher gained 50 yards on 11 carries, and QB Justin Roper picked up 32 yards on four totes. Andrew Selle was 11-of-18-0 for 150 yards and a TD, while Roper was 6-of-8-0 for 59 yards and a score. Senior tight end Steve Pfahler led UM with career-highs of 5 catches for 79 yards. Senior wide receiver/returner Marc Mariani had 3 grabs for 50 yards. Senior linebacker Shawn Lebsock and junior strong safety Erik Stoll led the Griz with a team-high 9 tackles each, while senior cornerback Keith Thompson had 8 stops.

24 IN A ROW!: The victory gave Montana its 24th winning season in a row, dating back to 1986.

MARIANI GOES LONG AGAIN: Mariani re-gained the lead (34-27) for the Griz against EWU when he returned a punt 82 yards for a touchdown. It was the third longest in school history, and Mariani's third career punt return for a touchdown.

RECORD CROWD AGAIN: For the fourth time in four games this season a record crowd (25,751) was on hand at the Griz-Eagle game in UM's Washington-Grizzly Stadium.

HORNETS LAST WEEK: at Weber State 49, Sac State 10: The combo of Cameron Higgins' passing to Tim Toone was too much for the Hornets as they lost at WSU's homecoming game. Higgins tossed 5 TD passes -- 3 to Toone in the game. Sac QB Jason Smith was 14-of-25-1 for 137 yards and a score. Hornet running back Terrance Dailey had game-highs of 22 carries for 96 yards. Sac had 316 total yards to WSU's 398, but the Hornets dominated time of possession (34:22 to 25:38).

THE SERIES: Montana leads the series 14-0.

GRIZ TRAVEL PLANS

Montana will depart via charter aircraft from Missoula on Friday, Oct. 23, with ETA in Sacramento at noon (Pacific).
Lodging: Marriott Sacramento Rancho Cordova (916-638-1100). The team will return home ASAP after the game on Saturday, Oct. 24, with ETA midnight.

Bobby Hauck is the winningest coach in Big Sky Conference history in terms of victories per season (11) and conference championships (six).

Hauck (Montana, 1988). 44, is ranked fourth in Big Sky history with his 72 career victories. His 72 wins are the second most in school history (Don Read won 85 games in his 10-year tenure from 1986-1995).

Hauck's Griz teams have won six straight league titles, and participated in the FCS playoffs six years in a row, and he is the only mentor at UM to accomplish that. His six league titles are twice as many as any other Grizzly coach.

Montana's 72 wins the past six-plus seasons since Hauck took over the reigns in 2003 -- the most by any FCS team.

Over the past three-plus seasons Hauck's (pronounced: howk) teams are 26-1 (.963) in the Big Sky games.

He was voted the Big Sky and Region 5 "Coach of the Year" in 2006 and 2007.

Over the past six seasons the Grizzlies have had 20 players named to FCS All-American teams.

Bobby is married to the former Stacey Harbin from St. Ignatius, Mont., and the couple have twin daughters, Sydney and Alexandra, 13, a son, Robby, 11, and a daughter Elise, 2. Bobby is an avid fly-fisherman and skier.

At Montana 43, Sac State 7

MISSOULA, MT – Montana senior quarterback Cole Bergquist passed for four touchdowns, two each to junior Marc Mariani and senior Mike Ferriter, to lead the eighth-ranked Grizzlies.

A record crowd of 25,486 in Washington-Grizzly Stadium saw Montana improve to 6-1 overall and 2-1 in league, while Sac State goes to 3-4/1-3. The old Washington-Grizzly Stadium attendance record 25,326 set against Central Washington earlier this season.

Bergquist was 17-of-19-0 (89.5%) passing for 290 yards. Mariani's two TD grabs went for 24 and 46 yards, while Ferriter scoring catches covered 31 and 73 yards. Mariani caught eight balls for 131 yards, while Ferriter had five for 119 yards.

Sac State sophomore QB Jason Smith was 20-of-36-1for 185 yards and one touchdown, while Hornet senior wide receiver Tony Washington had 130 yards on 12 catches, and sophomore running back Bryan Hilliard ran 24 times for 96 yards.

Early in the first quarter connected with Mariani for a 24-yard touchdown with 9:12 left, making it 7-0 Griz.

A Sac facemask penalty gave the Griz new life, and on a third-and-goal from the two-yard line, senior halfback Andrew Schmidt scored to give Montana a 14-0.

Montana went up 16-0 when Sac State punter punter Oscar DeAlba couldn't grab an errant snap, which resulted in a safety.

After senior linebacker Tyler Corwin had his first career interception, it led to a Bergquist to Ferriter 31-yard scoring pass, making it 23-0 UM with 5:19 left until half.

Sac State came alive on the next drive when Smith connected with Washington on a deep 46-yard pass. A few plays later, Smith threw the ball into the left corner of the end zone and receiver Kyle Hill caught the 19-yard pass from Smith for the Hornet's first and only touchdown of the contest, making it 23-7 Montana with 2:51 left in the second quarter.

Montana scored again on a quarterback draw by Bergquist from 14 yards out to give the Grizzlies a 29-7 lead at halftime.

Bergquist and Mariani hooked up again with 12:44 remaining in the third quarter when Mariani caught a short pass in the left flat and broke several tackles to score from 46 yards out, giving the Griz a 36-7 lead.

The Grizzlies first play on their next drive resulted in another touchdown when Bergquist hit Ferriter on a 73-yard touchdown bomb down the right sideline, giving the Grizzlies a commanding and final 43-7 lead with 6:37 left in the third quarter.

Montana's defense held Sac State to 250 total yards, including 65 rush yards on 32 carries. The Griz had 439 total yards, 314 passing and 125 rushing.

Bergquist moved up to fourth in career touchdown passes with 47, and he moved up to seventh in career passing yards with 6,035.

Mariani now has 11 receiving touchdowns this season, which ranks him fifth in single-season history.

Ferriter moved up to 16th in career receiving yards with 1,744, while his 124 receptions are the 17th most in school history.

MISSOULA, MONTANA – The Grizzlies got off to a slow start, but turned on the after-burners in the second half to register a 38-0 opening-season victory over the visiting Mountaineers in front of a record Washington-Grizzly Stadium crowd of 25,698.

The Griz defense was a key in the victory, holding the Mountaineers (0-2) to 116 total yards and six first downs. Montana is now 33-14 in season openers since it became an inaugural member of the the Big Sky Conference in 1963.

"It's good to be 1-0," said seventh-year UM head coach Bobby Hauck, who improved his overall record to 67-16/6-1 in season openers. "We took care of business. We didn't change anything at halftime, we just played a lot better in the second half."

The third-ranked Grizzlies (1-0) dominated the Mountaineers statistically in the first half, out-gaining them in total yards (233 to 54) and first downs (11-3), but led just 10-0. Sophomore Brody McKnight's 31-yard field goal and a 5-yard run by junior halfback Chase Reynolds, a 2009 Walter Payton Award candidate, accounted for UM's first-half scoring.

Montana came on strong in the third quarter, as tight end Steve Pfahler was on the receiving end of two touchdown throws, the first a 7-yarder from Andrew Selle, and the second a 10-yarder from Justin Roper. Pfahler's second scoring grab gave the Griz a 24-0 lead with 44 seconds left in the third stanza.

The Griz scored two unanswered touchdowns in the final quarter. After redshirt freshman wide receiver Sam Gratton blocked a WSC punt, the Griz took over on the Mountaineers' 13-yard line, and eventually scored on a 9-yard run by "true" freshman halfback Pete Nguyen. The final UM score came on a 1-yard run by halfback Dan Moore with 1:19 left.

Selle and Roper, both juniors, split playing time. Selle was 6-of-15-1 passing for 112 yards and a touchdown, while Roper was 16-of-24-0 for a 149 yards and one score.

"I think our offense started to get more efficient in the second half," said Roper. "I think we both (Selle and him) started to feel more confident and started to play with more consistency."

Reynolds rushed 18 times for 100 yards, the ninth time in his career he has hit the century mark. Nguyen had seven totes for 31 yards.

Reynolds now has 23 career rushing touchdowns, which ranks him fourth in school history. He was tied with Justin Green (2003-04) and Jody Farmer (1986-89), who rushed for 22 TDs each in their careers.

With his 100 yards rushing today, Reynolds now had 1,683 in his career, which moves him up to 10th past former Griz great Dick Imer, who gained 1,592 yards in 1953-54.

Senior wide receiver Tyler Palmer had a career-high six receptions for a game-high 87 yards. Sophomore wide receiver Jabin Sambrano had career-bests of five receptions for 63 yards. Senior tight end Dan Beaudin had three catches, while Reynolds and Pfahler each had two grabs.

Senior linebacker Shawn Lebsock led the Grizzlies with seven tackles, and he also had a sack. Junior free safety Erik Stoll added five tackles, while sophomore safety Mike McCord added four stops. Sophomore end Ryan Fetherston had two tackles for loss.

McKnight was just short on a 52-yard field goal try, and also had a 52-yard attempt blocked.

Montana 17 at UC Davis 10

DAVIS, CALIF. – The University of Montana Grizzlies survived another slow start, two record-setting UC Davis Aggie individual performances, and a light failure to notch a come-from-behind 17-10 road win.

The game was in question with less than a minute to go. UC Davis was knocking on the door, sitting at the Montana 12-yard line down 17-10 when things went crazy in Davis, Calif. The stadium lights failed with 57 seconds left to play, causing a lengthy delay on a 4th-and-7 from the 12-yard line. Following the delay, Griz cornerback Trumaine Johnson out-jumped Chris Carter in the end zone to snag the game-securing interception, allowing Montana to run out the clock.

Montana went with a quarterback rotation for the second game in a row. Justin Roper started the game, going 9-for-19 for 143 yards and a touchdown, and Andrew Selle threw for 83 yards on 7-of-10 passing. Running back Chase Reynolds had a game-high 90 yards on 25 carries.

Montana didn't pick up a first down until 13:48 when Roper hit Reynolds for a 12-yard strike. The success was short-lived, and the Griz again traded punts with the Aggies. Following another Grizzly defensive stop, another promising UM drive was cut short when linebacker Mike Healey stripped Marc Mariani after a reception, and UCD recovered and returned the fumble 39 yards to the UM 44. Davis couldn't capitalize, and the half ended with the Aggies leading 3-0.

UM's Jabin Sambrano returned the opening kick of the second half 35 yards to give UM great field position at near midfield, but a botched snap led to a turnover, giving the Aggies the ball at the UM 45. UCD took advantage, putting together a 13-play scoring drive, capped by a Denham 1-yard play-action pass to tight end Brad Bispo, giving the Aggies a 10-0 lead.

Montana got on the board the following possession, as Roper threw a 17-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Sam Gratten in the corner of the end zone to make it 10-7 Aggies.

Montana turned it on in the fourth quarter. After Austin Mullins broke up a screen pass on third down to force the Aggies into a 38-yard field goal attempt that Kelley pushed wide right. Following the missed field goal by UCD, Montana strung together a 5-play scoring drive, highlighted by a Roper to Dan Beaudin 61 yard catch-and-run to the Davis 3. Reynolds threw a key block on that play and also got the touchdown on the next snap, a 3-yard run to the left, giving Montana its first lead, 14-10.

Davis turned the ball over on its next possession when a high shotgun snap was recovered by UM's Severin Campbell at the Aggie 20-yard line. Montana moved the ball after that and had a first-and-goal from the 5-yard line, but the Davis defense stiffened, and the Griz had to settle for a 23-yard field goal by Brody McKnight.

The 17-10 lead with 8:34 to go would be all Montana would need. Montana burned 3:30 off the clock on its next possession, giving UC Davis 67 yards to go in 2:31. A Denham pass to Carter for 42 yards picked up a large chunk of that, but the Aggies would only get to the UM 12 before the agonizing lighting delay, which lasted around 15 minutes.

Reynolds 90 yards rushing give him 1,773 in his career, moving him up to eighth on the career list. Reynolds now has 24 career touchdown runs, tying him with Tony Rice (1989-92) for the third most in school history.

Marc Mariani had a team-high 5 catches for 66 yards, while Tyler Palmer and Reynolds had 3 catches each, and tight end Dan Beaudin had 2 grabs for 72 yards, including a key career-long 61-yarder.

Safety Erik Stoll led UM with 10 tackles, while linebacker Brandon Fisher and cornerback Keith Thompson each had 8 stops. Johnson also had six tackles, including one for a loss, and he now has six career interceptions in 12 games.

UC Davis quarterback Greg Denham and Carter both set school records against Montana. Carter's 18 receptions and Denham's 43 completions were both single-game bests. Carter finished with 190 receiving yards, and Denham threw 64% (43-67) for 362 yards and a touchdown, as well as two interceptions.

MISSOULA, MONTANA – The University of Montana Grizzlies opened their 2009 Big Sky Conference season with a 49-17 victory over the visiting Portland State Vikings in front of a record crowd of 25,726 at UM's Washington-Grizzly Stadium Saturday afternoon.

The fourth-ranked (Sports Network) Grizzlies overcame a 14-0 first quarter deficit to win their 10th straight conference opener dating back to 1999. The Griz have now won 15 of their last 17 Big Sky openers. UM broke the attendance record it had set just two weeks ago in its season opener, 25,698 against Western State.

Montana has now defeated PSU five times in a row and in nine of the last 10 meetings.

PSU jumped to a 14-0 lead with 3:41 to go on a 38-yard pass from Drew Hubel to Lavonte Kirven. PSU scored the opening touchdown of the game on a three-yard run by Ben Bowen with 9:00 left in the first quarter.

Montana came right back, though, as Justin Roper connected with Marc Mariani for a 56-yard scoring pass to cut the Viking lead to 14-7 with 1:57 left in the first stanza.

The Grizzlies tied it 14-14 when the PSU deep snapper hiked the ball over PSU punter's head and it sailed all the way back to the goal-line, and Montana linebacker Jordan Tripp, a "true" freshman, jumped on the ball for a touchdown at the 12:58 mark in the second quarter.

Exactly five minutes later the Grizzlies scored on a four-play, 65-yard drive that took just a tick over 1:31, as sophomore Beau Donaldson plowed over the goal-line for a 1-yard touchdown, the first of his career, that coming with 7:58 left until halftime. The play that led to Donaldson's TD was a 38-yard completion from Selle to Jabin Sambrano, who was tripped up at the PSU one-yard line.

Montana gambled a bit and went ahead by two scores when they went for it on a fourth-and-three from the PSU 14-yard line, as Andrew Selle tossed a 14-yard touchdown strike to tight end Steven Pfahler, who now has three TD catches this season. Pfahler's scoring grab made it 28-14 UM, with 2:41 left until intermission.

PSU scored its final points in the closing minute (0:58) of the second quarter on a 20-yard field goal by Zach Brown, making the score 28-17 at the half.

Montana dominated the second half, as the Grizzly offense used a solid running game (28 rushes for 157 yards and a score) and mixed that in with a good passing game (214 yards and two touchdowns), outscoring the Vikings 21-0, and added a superb effort by the "D," which shut out PSU and held the Vikings to 160 total yards and seven first downs.

UM's Chase Reynolds scored the only touchdown in the third quarter on a 4-yard run. Montana had started the drive that led to Reynolds' scoring run on the PSU 29-yard line thanks to junior safety Erik Stoll, who picked off Hubel for the first interception of his career.

The Grizzlies scored twice in the final quarter, first on a 45-yard pass from Selle to Mariani, and the final score came on a 6-yard pass from Selle to Donaldson.

Selle completed 14-of-23 passes for 213 yards and three touchdowns. Roper, who suffered a jarring late hit on a broken play, but returned to the huddle after that hit, threw a 56-yard touchdown pass to Mariani on the next play, but he did not return to action after that series.

"True" freshman Peter Nguyen rushed only five times, but picked up a game-high 71 yards. Quarterback Gerald Kemp, a redshirt freshman, also sparked the team with his ball-carrying, gaining 61 yards on 11 carries. Elle rushed three times for 41 yards. Reynolds had 12 carries for a hard-earned 28 yards.

Nguyen had three punt returns for 48 yards, two kickoff returns for 43 yards, 71 rushing yards, and a catch for 10 yards for 172 all-purpose yards.

Linebacker Shawn Lebsock led Montana with 8 tackles, including one for a loss, while safety Shann Schillinger had 7 tackles and a pass break-up, and tackle Austin Mullins had 6 stops and also blocked a field goal. Defensive end Bobby Alt and linebacker Brock Coyle each had interceptions.

Montana 41, at Northern Arizona 34 (OT)

FLAGSTAFF, ARIZ. – The Grizzlies survived a shootout in Flagstaff, defeating the Northern Arizona Lumberjacks in overtime in the Walkup Skydome.

It was a milestone victory for seventh-year Montana mentor Bobby Hauck, as he picked up his 70th career win.

Montana held a 27-14 lead until the waning moments of the third quarter when NAU came back, starting with a 21-yard touchdown pass from Michael Herrick to Curt Sweeney. NAU added a Matt Myers 37-yard field goal and another Herrick to Sweeney 41-yard TD strike, scoring 17 unanswered points, putting the Lumberjacks up 31-27 with 3:52 remaining.

The Griz answered though, as a Jabin Sambrano kickoff return of 50 yards gave UM the ball at midfield. The drive sputtered with a false start sandwiched between a pair of short completions, but facing 3rd-and-5, wide receiver Sam Gratton reeled in a pass from Andrew Selle and took it 45 yards for the go-ahead touchdown, putting Montana up 34-31 with 2:37 to go.

NAU started its final possession at its 24, and put together an 11-play drive to set up a 47-yard field goal attempt by Mayers, a transfer from Washington State, and his three-pointer tied the game 34-all with just two seconds left.

Ty Palmer took a Selle screen pass 25 yards for a TD on the first play of overtime to put Montana ahead 41-34.

On the next play Herrick connected with halfback Alex Henderson on a play-action pass for 22 yards to the Montana 3, but Griz free safety Shann Schillinger slammed the door on the next play, intercepting a Herrick pass which was tipped by cornerback Trumaine Johnson in the end zone to secure the win for the Griz. The interception was the game's only turnover.

UM threw for 349 yards and NAU for 458. The Griz ran for 74 yards, while the Jacks had 49. UM was outgained 507-423 in total offense, but had a 12-minute edge in time of possession.

The Griz had three receivers catch six balls each: Palmer went for 87 yards and his first touchdown of the season, Gratton had 77 yards and a TD, and Mariani tallied 70 yards and a score.

Selle completed 29-38 passes for 349 yards and three touchdowns, while Herrick went 36-of-49-1 for 440 yards and four TDs, but also threw the game-ending interception.

UM's Chase Reynolds led the way on the ground with two touchdowns on 23 carries for 73 yards rushing.

The Griz started the scoring on a Reynolds 3-yard run, capping a 91-yard drive, spanning 15 plays and eating up nearly six minutes of game clock.

After that lengthy Griz drive, NAU put together a quick strike, a two-play drive covering 78 yards in just 30 seconds, Herrick throwing a 46-yard TD strike to Sweeney.

Following the NAU touchdown, Peter Nguyen returned the kickoff 61 yards to the NAU 37. Reynolds capped a 37-yard drive with a 6-yard touchdown run to put Montana up 14-7 to start the second quarter.

With his rush yards and two TDs, Reynolds moved up to sixth in career rushing yards (1,874) and 13th in career scoring (168 points).

Mariani turned a short pass from Selle into a 13-yard TD reception, capping a seven-play, 77-yard drive to push the UM lead to 21-7 with 6:21 to go in the half. The TD was Mariani's 19th of his career, moving him into a tie with former Griz Matt Wells for ninth on the team's all time list.

The Jacks drew within a touchdown in the second quarter, taking the ball 80 yards in 11 plays, and Henderson's 25-yard reception on a screen pass from Herrick made the score 21-14, UM.

Montana took possession with 1:34 left until halftime, and it looked like the score would be 21-14 at intermission, but Selle strung together five completions on six plays to get the ball into field goal range with two seconds on the clock. Brody McKnight's field goal attempt from 54 yards out was good, giving McKnight his career-long and the Griz a 10-point (24-14) halftime edge.

McKnight added a 21-yard field goal at the 6:55 mark of the third quarter, pushing the Griz lead to 13 (27-14), but NAU stormed back, setting up the late-game drama and come-from-behind overtime victory for the fourth-ranked Grizzlies.

MISSOULA, MONTANA – The fourth-ranked University of Montana Grizzlies used a dominate second half to defeat the 15th-ranked Cal Poly Mustangs 35-23 in a non-league game Saturday afternoon in Washington-Grizzly Stadium in UM's annual homecoming game.

A crowd of 25,694 braved frigid temperatures (25 degrees at kickoff) to see the Grizzlies win their 17th homecoming game in a row. It was the third largest crowd ever in 172 games at Washington-Grizzly Stadium.

Cal Poly (2-3) took a 17-14 lead at half, controlled the game with their option attack, and also shut down Montana's (5-0) offense in the opening 30 minutes.

The Mustangs of the Great West Conference jumped to a 10-0 lead with 11:19 to go until intermission on a 32-yard field goal by kicker Chris Pinto. Cal Poly took a 7-0 first-quarter lead on a methodical, 83-yard 10-play drive, with quarterback Tony Smith scoring on a 1-yard run.

The Grizzlies got their initial first down of the game in grand fashion, as wide receiver Marc Mariani hauled in a short pass and then out-raced the Mustangs' defense for an 84-yard touchdown reception on a pass from quarterback Justin Roper. Mariani's grab, which tied him for the sixth longest in school history, cut the Cal Poly lead to 10-7 with 8:15 remaining until halftime.

The Mustangs got great field position when Ryan Taylor recovered a fumble punt return by Mariani, giving the Mustangs the ball on the UM 20-yard line. Six plays later Cal Poly fullback Jordan Yocum scored on a 1-yard plunge, giving his team a 17-7 lead with 1:08 left until half.

But Montana's offense started to come to life, and just 48 seconds after Yocum's score, Griz halfback Chase Reynolds took a screen pass from quarterback Andrew Selle for a 35-yard touchdown, reducing the Cal Poly lead to 17-14 with 28 ticks left until the half.

Neither team scored in the third quarter, but the Grizzlies scored back-to-back touchdowns in the final stanza and took a 28-17 lead when Mariani hauled in a 68-yard pass from Selle with 9:03 left to play.

Earlier in the final quarter, Reynolds gave Montana what proved to be the lead for good, when he scored on a 3-yard run with 14:28 remaining in the contest. Reynolds was a work-horse on that scoring drive, rushing 10 times for 59 yards and three first downs.

Cal Poly did not go away, though, as just 32 seconds after the Grizzlies had taken their 11-point (28-17) lead, the Mustangs scored on a 59-yard bomb from quarterback Harlan Prather to wide receiver Mike Anderson. Prather, who had replaced Smith who was injured early in the game, was errant on a two-point pass conversion, and Montana led 28-23 with 8:23 left to play.

The Grizzlies then used up valuable time and got a much-needed insurance touchdown, as Reynolds hauled in a pass from Selle for an 8-yard touchdown with 3:24 left in the contest, capping off a nine-play 62-yard drive that took almost five minutes (4:54) off the clock.

In the second half, UM out-gained Cal Poly 277 to 112 in total yards, had nine more first downs (14 to 5), and had the ball almost eight minutes (17:39 to 12:21) more in time of possession.

Reynolds rushed 29 times for 109 yards and a touchdown, and also caught 2 passes, both for scores.

Mariani had game-highs of 6 receptions for 200 yards and a pair of TDs. Selle was 9-of-17-0 for 155 yards and 3 touchdowns, while Roper completed 5-of-10 passes for 123 yards and a score, but was picked off twice.

Griz DT Austin Mullins had a team-high 10 tackles, while linebackers Shawn Lebsock and Brandon Fisher and end Jace Palmer each had 8 stops.

Yocum rushed for 119 yards on 24 carries and scored once, while Smith had 7 totes for 21 yards and a touchdown. Smith was 7-of-14-0 passing for 86 yards.

At Montana 41, Eastern Washington 34:

MISSOULA, MONTANA —The third-ranked and never-say-die University of Montana Grizzlies put together a scoring drive in the final few minutes to up-end the 21-st ranked Eagles in a Big Sky Conference match-up in front of a record crowd (25,751) at UM's Washington-Grizzly Stadium.

The victory gave Montana its 24th winning season in a row, dating back to 1986.

Montana's final scoring drive was an 11-play, 55-yarder that culminated when halfback Chase Reynolds scored on a 4th-and-goal from the 1-yard line, which gave the Grizzlies a 41-34 lead with 1:18 remaining in the game.

After Reynolds had scored the go-ahead touchdown, EWU took over on its own 20-yard line and advanced the ball to its own 49-yard line, but its drive stopped there, as quarterback Matt Nichols threw four straight incompletions.

EWU had tied the game up at 34-all on a 1-yard scoring run by halfback Taiwan Jones with 4:58 remaining.

After Jones' game-tying run, Montana's Jabin Sambrano gave UM good field position, returning the kickoff 26 yards to the Montana 45-yard line, setting the stage for the Grizzlies' go-ahead scoring drive.

The Grizzlies took their biggest lead on their second possession of the third quarter, as quarterback Andrew Selle connected with wide receiver Tyler Palmer in the left corner of the end zone for an 18-yard touchdown pass, which gave UM a 27-13 advantage with 6:09 to go in the third quarter.

EWU came right back, though, and scored twice, the first a 14-yard TD pass from Nichols to Ashton Gant, and the second a 50-yard scoring strike from Nichols to Aaron Boyce. Boyce's touchdown catch came with nine seconds left in the third quarter and tied the game at 27-27.

Montana's prolific receiver/returner Marc Mariani regained the lead for the Griz with 10:11 left in the contest, returning a punt 82 yards for a touchdown. It was Mariani's third career score on a punt return.

EWU marched down the field on its opening drive and took a 7-0 lead on a 13-yard scoring pass from Nichols to tight end Nathan Overbay. UM got on the scoreboard when a bad snap sailed over the EWU punter's head and that safety made it 7-2, Eagles. Eastern Washington closed out the first-quarter scoring on a 39-yard field goal by Mike Jarrett, giving the Eagles a 10-2 lead at the 2:44 mark.

The Griz scored the next 18 points, however, to take a 20-10 lead with 1:05 left until intermission. Montana's scoring during that 11-minute surge started with a 27-yard field goal by McKnight. That was followed by a 2-yard scoring pass from QB Justin Roper to tight end Rob Overton (Overton's first career score) and a run by Mariani for a two-point conversion, and a 16-yard run by Reynolds. EWU's Jarrett kicked a 48-yard field goal as time expired to cut UM's halftime lead to 20-13.

Reynolds led UM with 21 carries for 69 yards and two scores, while Thomas Brooks-Fletcher gained 50 yards on 11 carries, and Roper picked up 32 yards on four totes.

Reynolds moved up to fourth on UM's career rushing list with 2,052 yards, passing Steve Caputo (2,033, 1969-71), and he also became the fourth player in school history to rush for more than 2,000 yards. Reynolds also moved up to eighth in career scoring with 198 points.

Selle was 11-of-18-0 for 150 yards and a touchdown, while Roper was 6-of-8-0 for 59 yards and a score. Tight end Steve Pfahler led UM with career-highs of 5 catches for 79 yards, while Mariani had 3 grabs for 50 yards, and Palmer and Reynolds has 2 receptions apiece.

Linebacker Shawn Lebsock and strong safety Erik Stoll led the Griz with a team-high 9 tackles each, while cornerback Keith Thompson had 8 stops. Tackles Austin Mullins and Tyler Hobbs each had a sack for Montana.

Jones rushed 17 times for 145 yards and a score. Nichols was 32-of-49-0 for 312 yards and 3 touchdowns. Slot back Tony Davis led EWU with 8 catches for 59 yards, while Boyce had 7 grabs for a game-high 114 yards and a TD. EWU linebacker J.C. Sherritt had a game-high 17 tackles.
