Head Coach

Michael Linenberger 20th Season (Duke '87)

Michael Linenberger begins his 20th season at the helm of the Sacramento State men's soccer program. He began his coaching career with the Hornets as an assistant in 1988 and co-head coach from 1989 to 1991, before taking sole control of the head coaching duties in 1992.

He has led the team through each year as a member of the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation, beginning in 1992 and returns to the field in 2008 with hopes of capturing the MPSF's automatic bid into the NCAA College Cup.

The Hornets finished the 2007 campaign with a record of 4-13-2, including a 3-6-1 mark in the MPSF.

Sacramento State had five student-athletes earn All-MPSF honors following the 2006 season, including a first team selection.

For the third straight season, the Hornets had a player drafted in the Major Indoor Soccer League as senior midfielder Eli Mililan, who earned second team all-conference honors, was selected in the fourth round by the California Cougars.

During the 2001 season, Linenberger guided the Hornets to their first regular-season conference championship in the Div. I era (1991-present). Sacramento State's 4-1-2 MPSF record also gave the Hornets their most conference wins in program history at the time. Due to his efforts, Linenberger was named 2001 MPSF Men's Soccer Coach of the Year.

Linenberger was named as a scout by the U.S. Soccer Federation for Project 2010, an initiative designed to make the men's national team fully competitive by the 2010 World Cup. His primary duties included the scouting of 13-14 year olds in Northern California that have future national team potential but are not in the ODP system.

Linenberger received a bachelor of arts degree in psychology from Duke University in 1987. He was a four-year letterwinner as a member of the Blue Devils' soccer team and a team captain. He was captain of the 1986 squad which won the NCAA Div. I national title.

A holder of a United States Soccer Federation A license in coaching, Linenberger played with the under-20 United States National Youth Team and in the U.S. Olympic Festival.
