SACRAMENTO STATE

Founded in 1947, Sacramento State is the seventh-largest university in the California State system. With more than 28,000 students, the University is a multi-cultural campus featuring extensive research and internship opportunities.

Located along the American River, the campus offers 60 undergraduate and 40 graduate degree programs.

The city of Sacramento not only houses the state Capitol, it was also named "America's most diverse city" by TIME magazine in 2002.

Sacramento State sponsors 20 intercollegiate sports at the Div. I level. The University is also planning to build a new recreation and wellness center.
